

Council's ABC honour

ROCKINGHAM City Council's work toward building a mentally healthy community was acknowledged last week when it was awarded the Act-Belong-Commit Site award.

The council was applauded for its annual Photo Voice competition and exhibition, which encourages participants to take photos based on the mentally healthy theme. Mentally Healthy WA health promotion officer Sarah Graham said the council should be proud of its work.

"The city's dedication to developing innovative community programs that get people thinking about their mental health and what they can do to stay mentally healthy is the key to their success," she said.
